

What's On

January 1 – 15, 2019

Reel Time: Three Identical Strangers

Monday, January 7 | 7 PM | Lux Cinema Banff, 229 Bear Street | $12

Reel Time features some of the best films from the Toronto International Film Festival. The Winter series brings alternative cinema to the Bow Valley.

In Three Identical Strangers, three complete strangers accidentally discover that they are identical triplets, separated at birth. Their joyous reunion catapults the 19-year-old brothers to international fame, but it also reveals an extraordinary and disturbing secret with an indeterminate number of victims at play.

Visual Arts Open Lecture: Jon Rafman

Tuesday, January 8 | 4 PM | Jeanne and Peter Lougheed Bldg, 204 | Free

The Visual Arts Lecture Series presents talks by leading Canadian and international artists, curators, and academics. Join Jon Rafman, faculty for Banff Centre's Digital Promises program, for this talk. Rafman's work explores the impact of technology on contemporary consciousness, incorporating the rich vocabulary of virtual worlds to create poetic narratives that critically engage with the present.

Drawn to Nature at the Banff Public Library: January

Wednesday, January 9 | 5:30 PM | Banff Public Library | Free

Participants of all ages and levels of experience are invited to sketch and draw at Banff Centre's free ongoing beginner-level drawing workshops. Join esteemed Teaching Artist in Residence Janice Tanton as we explore different materials and techniques for mark making in this facilitated class. Registration is required. Visit banffcentre.ca for more information.

Prince Hamlet

Friday, January 11 | 7:30 PM | Margaret Greenham Theatre

Adult $25 | Senior/Student $22

Struggling with the death of his royal father and his mother's hasty re-marriage to his uncle – and the murder of the king – Hamlet undertakes the harrowing task of avenging his father's untimely death. Combining spoken word and American Sign Language, this groundbreaking production creates a fully integrated retelling for both hearing and Deaf audiences. Prince Hamlet features a cross-cultural, gender-bent cast, challenging conventional ideas of who gets to tell this story.

Banff Musicians in Residence Open Concert featuring Kiya Tabassian

Friday, January 11 | 7:30 PM | Rolston Recital Hall | Free

Join Kiya Tabassian and participants from the Banff Musicians in Residence program for an evening of musical exploration.